Dear St. Philip Neri Family and Friends,

We give praise and thanks to God for His graces and blessings. The readings this Sunday remind us of a beautiful and comforting truth: God is faithful to His people. Throughout salvation history, God has never abandoned those whom He loves. He is the loving King, the faithful Shepherd, the One who continually reaches out to His children with mercy, compassion, and peace. In our first reading, the prophet Zechariah speaks of a king who comes not with power and force, but with humility and gentleness. This king brings peace to the nations. This prophecy finds its fulfillment in Jesus Christ. He is the King who does not rule from a throne of gold but from the throne of the Cross. He conquers not through violence but through love. He is a King who is loving, just, merciful, and faithful to His people. In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that the way to the Father is through Him. He tells us that the mysteries of God are not revealed to the proud or self-sufficient but to the little ones, those who approach God with humble and trusting hearts. The Lord invites us to become like children before Him, recognizing our need for His grace, His mercy, and His love. Then Jesus speaks those words that have brought comfort to countless generations: “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart.” What a beautiful invitation! Jesus knows the burdens we carry. He knows our worries, fears, disappointments, anxieties, and struggles. He knows the wounds we carry in our hearts. He knows the weight of sin and the challenges of daily life. Yet He does not push us away. Instead, He opens His arms and says, “Come to Me.” The Sacred Heart of Jesus is the visible sign of that invitation. Jesus’ Heart is filled with love, mercy, compassion, and forgiveness. His Heart is always open to His children. No matter how far we may have wandered, no matter how heavy our burdens may be, Jesus welcomes us. His Heart is a refuge for the weary, strength for the weak, and healing for the wounded. This year, as our nation celebrates 250 years as the United States of America, we have many reasons to thank God. Throughout our history, God has blessed our country with countless gifts: freedom, opportunities, religious liberty, and the ability to worship Him openly. While our nation is not perfect, we recognize the many blessings that God has poured out upon us. Recently, our bishops have consecrated our nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This act reminds us that our true hope is not found in political systems, economic strength, or human achievements. Our hope and life are found in Christ alone. We ask the Sacred Heart of Jesus to continue to bless our nation, to heal our wounds, to forgive our sins, and to guide us in the ways of truth, justice, and peace. We pray that the Lord may heal the wounds that exist within our country, within our communities, within our families, and within our own hearts. We ask Him to pour out His mercy upon us and to help us become a people who reflect His love and goodness. The Sacred Heart of Jesus reminds us that we are not strangers to God. We are His beloved sons and daughters. His arms are always extended toward us. He never grows tired of forgiving us. He never stops loving us. He never abandons His people. As we celebrate the blessings of our nation and reflect upon the words of Jesus today, may we place our trust completely in Him. May we bring our burdens to His Sacred Heart. May we find rest in His mercy, strength in His love, and hope in His faithfulness. And may we never forget that although we are imperfect, we are still His people. We belong to Him. We are loved by Him. And His Sacred Heart will always remain open to welcome us home.

Forever we will sing the goodness of the Lord. Psalm 145

I pray for you every day, especially at Mass. Please pray for me.

Please invite someone to Mass today.

St. Philip Neri, pray for us. Have a blessed week,

Fr. Szparagowski
